

LED SART

F E E L T H E M A G I C

We bring designers and clients together, to create impactful light-ART

Our diverse and fast-changing society has created a growing need for unique artistic solutions for public spaces

Public spaces = Artists' stages

Owners of malls, hotels and similar spaces are in need of efficient access to creative, out-of-the-box ideas to create higher value for visitors to their spaces that professional solution providers often struggle to deliver

Stage Owners are looking for ART

When looking for Light-ART, you want maximum output with minimum effort.

Instead of asking your local solution provider you can now engage a crowd of artists who can provide you with unique out-of-the-box ideas and designs.

We offer a global source that transforms your "local stage" into a place of ART.

Solution Providers often suffer from limited resources

Professional players in the seasonal and festive lighting industry often have limited resources to repeatedly create solutions that have the “WOW factor”

- ▲ many sales opportunities
- ▲ to few internal Designers
- ▲ limited resources = limited WOW factor
- ▲ unable to deal with seasonal peaks

The Artist

There are many talented and creative artists and designers who do not have a stage to make their ART become reality

Here is the Solution:

Design submission

In the design submission phase you gather your thoughts and transform them into a design for a specific challenge or contest. Please make sure that you submit your design, even if it's still in a draft version. This opens up the opportunity for the community to comment and feedback your design. Additionally it will give you new thoughts about the quality of your design, so you can develop it even further later on.

Rainbow colored LED trail

A complete new experience for taking a walk at night.

Concept story

Everyone knows the unpleasant feeling of walking through a park at night. The dim light of the lanterns in front of you, which often makes the scenery even gloomier and more unpleasant. The aim of the rainbow trail is to make the parks of the city shining in a completely new way and to make a nightly walk enjoyable again.

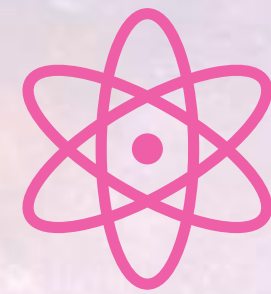

The rainbow accents attract the attention of the walker and together with the surrounding nature they form a breathtaking experience for every visitor.

Artwork visualization

offering great benefits for artists

It's straightforward: If you enter a contest and your design contribution wins, you'll have a stage for your work.

Join a group of inspired designers and network with potential clients

Participate in contests and contribute ideas to the artwork

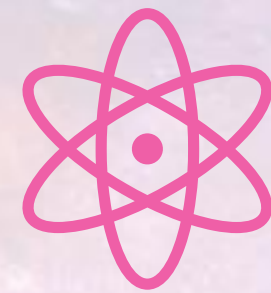

Get selected for the best light-art concept contributions and win attractive prizes

Get signed as the exclusive designer and benefit from strong production partnerships

How „stage owners“ benefit

LedsArt is a platform that will enable you to collect countless creative contributions from a global pool of talented designers and artists.

Tap into a group of inspirational designers and network with other stage owners benefit from the power of a global creative crowd by creating your own contests

Be part of reviewing and curating contributions, and take advantage of our expertise in art and technology

Benefit from strong production partners with the expertise to implement the winning artwork and bring your stage to life

What makes us special:

Designers can showcase their talent to a selection of renowned clients and propose creative concepts that have a chance of becoming a reality; clients get a wide variety of high-quality, original and never-before-seen designs

The Stage Owner

- gets 100+ Designs instead of only one
- receives artwork valued at 300.000€ or higher
- pays only a small share of the artwork's value

The Designer

- get a virtual stage to present artwork to clients
- has an opportunity to pitch light-art concepts for big projects that they don't find elsewhere on the web
- make an impact with art
